

THE ZANY ZOO

Lee Bryan - That Puppet Guy www.puppetguy.com (404)315-1363

In this hilarious variety marionette revue, you'll witness the most amazing amalgamation of animal antics, acrobatics and artistry ever before presented on one stage. This production can be performed for outdoor venues such as carnivals and fairs but easily adapts to an inside production space

Performed almost entirely to music, these wild and wooly animal artists will charm their way into your hearts as they dangle by a thread in the hands of Atlanta puppeteer, Lee Bryan. But be sure to watch closely because this delightful assortment of colorful characters comes to life, cabaret-style, in full view of the audience.

Among the myriad of members in this merry menagerie, you'll thrill to the antics of...

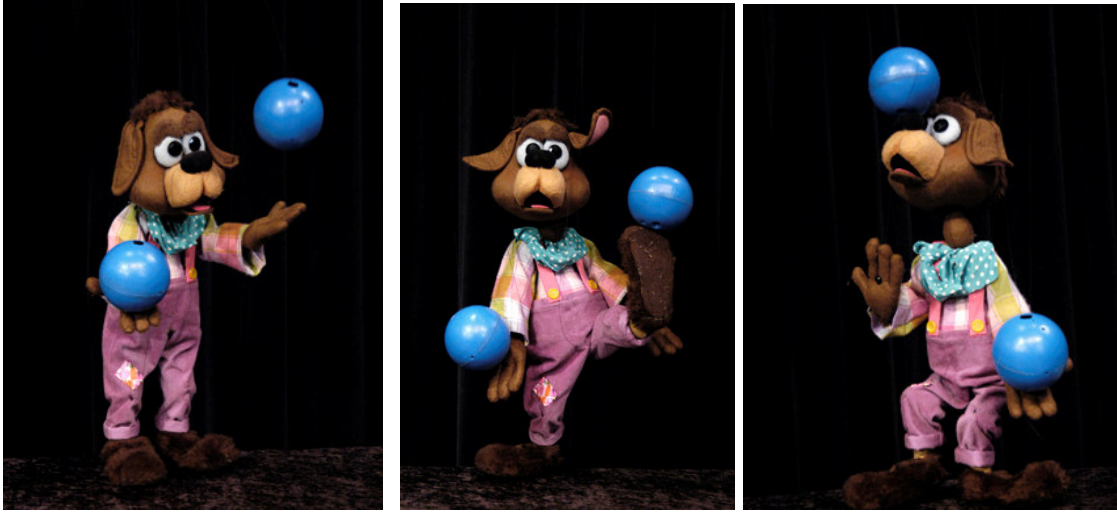

...Phoebe, the roller skating frog...

...Norbert, the strongest bear in the world...

...Larry, the ball balancing dog...

...and even a belly dancing bunny named Miss Carmen!

Delights for the entire family abound in this action-packed show that's perfect for the young and the young-at-heart. You're sure to be astounded by...

...Bouncing Bones Bunny who can't seem to pull his act together.

And be sure to have your audience bring their cameras to have picture made with Beelinda, the bumblebee ballerina...

...or even a beetle named Buggy B. Badd who plays a flower trumpet!

Features: Variety/trick marionettes.
Performed almost entirely to music.
Photo opportunities after the show

Audience size: up to 300

Ages: Families/all ages

Technical Support: Lighting and sound support provided by puppeteer.

Staging Requirements: Indoors or out. Sight lines require an ELEVATED stage/platform. Space should be at least 15ft square, level and close to electrical outlet.

Program Length: Full show runs 45 minutes but this production can be shortened to 15 or 30 minute versions as well.